Central Highlands Rural Health Procurement Activity Plan 2026-2027

Central Highlands Rural Health was formed in November 2019 with the joining of Hepburn Health and Kyneton District Health, ensuring residents can access the very best health care closer to home, long into the future. We have rural Hospitals in Kyneton and Daylesford, Residential Aged Care in Daylesford, Trentham and Creswick and operate Community Aged Care services and Community Health services across the region.
